Description: This presentation explores how a Mayo Clinic team in Phoenix, Arizona addressed documentation processes and concerns related to restraints. Presenters will discuss how an interdisciplinary team and innovative technology were used to eliminate the time spent doing unnecessary, manual steps of tracking and calculating restraints performance data. Presenters will discuss how this project contributed significantly to the organization’s accreditation readiness, innovation, and health equity goals. Process improvements and outcomes related to this project will be shared.

Speakers:

Cathy L. Hannafin, MBA/HCM, R.N., C.P.H.Q.

Laurie H. Schellbach, M.B.A., R.N.

Lorrie A. Jones, APRN, CNS, D.N.P.

Ursula D. Fletcher, M.H.A., R.N., C.P.H.Q.

Objectives: Participants will be able to

1. Identify regulatory standards related to restraint management.
2. Identify potential barriers that could impact compliance with regulatory standards of care for restrained patients.
3. Explore how to leverage technology and interprofessional partnership to improve outcomes.
4. Discuss the benefits and lessons learned from implementing an automated restraint quality monitoring program.
